1. Broads Local Access Forum

1.1 Statutory purpose

The Broads Local Access Forum is an independent advisory body established by the Broads Authority in 2003, under the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000.

The Act states that the purpose of the forum is to be a statutory advisory body to provide guidance and advice to the Broads Authority and other organisations on the improvement of public access within the Broads and to contribute to opportunities for open air recreation and the enjoyment of the area. In providing advice, the forum will have regard to:

- The needs of land management
- The conservation of the natural beauty of the area
- The management and maintenance of recreational access whilst balancing this against the needs of nature conservation, agriculture, the interests of landowners and managers, navigation and countryside management projects within the Broads

1.2 The forum's vision

The Broads is an unrivalled wetland of natural diversity, heritage and special character. It is a place where people come to explore, enjoy and find spiritual refreshment. Access to the Broads should be clear and easy to use, respectful of wildlife and land management, meet users' needs and promote responsible and harmonious behaviour. The Broads Local Access Forum will champion access improvements and management, represent a wide range of interests and contribute to sustainability for environment, communities and the economy.

2. What has happened during the year?

3.2 Members and representation

Keith Bacon – Catfield

Tel: 01692 581314
keithbacon@keme.co.uk

Representing archaeology and landscape heritage

Keith, a native of Catfield, is a retired teacher and runs the family holiday business at Potter Heigham. He is a member of the Broads Forum and a former member of the Broads Authority. He is Vice-Chairman and former Chairman of the Broads Society and is a committee member of the North Norfolk group of CPRE. He has been Chairman of Catfield Parish Council for over 20 years and has been a district councillor. His other interests include local history (with a PhD in agricultural history), fen conservation in Catfield and being church warden of Catfield church.

Peter Medhurst – Norwich

Tel: 01603 259723
petermedhurst@virginmedia.com

Representing educational establishments

Peter, although born in Kent, spent most of his childhood in East Anglia. In 1978 he returned to East Anglia from the north of England. Having spent most of his life in the countryside, and as walking is his passion, access to rural areas is vitally important to him. He has, over many years, represented the trade union on committees dealing with rural issues both nationally and regionally. Now retired, he used to be chair of Norfolk Rural Community Council and was a Governor of Easton College for a number of years. He continues to be a Trustee of SLI, an allotment project in Norwich, and Trustee of Burston Strike School.

Louis Baugh – Neatishead

Tel: 07785 224589
lbaugh@netcom.co.uk

Representing landowners and managers

Louis farms a mixed arable and dairy unit on the River Ant neighbouring the How Hill and Alderfen nature reserves. He is a Trustee of the Village Pools Trust, a member of the Broads Internal Drainage Board and a Trustee of the Royal Norfolk Agricultural Association. He has an extensive Countryside Stewardship Scheme in place on his farm, which includes a network of permissive footpaths which connect the statutory public rights of way and the communities of Horning and Neatishead. Louis is a member of the Broads Authority.

David Broad – Horning

Tel: 016092 631273
davidbroad@btinternet.com

Representing the Broads Authority

First visiting Horsey, Wroxham and Brundall in the Norfolk Broads as a boy for fishing holidays, David has more recently been associated with boating as past Director of the Cruising Association and founding chairman of the Broom Owners Club. Retired early as company Chairman and Chief Executive, David has been a toll payer and resident in a thatched riverside house in Horning since 1989 and been a member of the Broads Authority and Navigation Committee since 2008 as the Broads Authority's lead member on Sustainable Tourism. Keen on cycling, walking and dog training he has taken up the role of the Authority's representative on the Local Access Forum.

Liz Brooks – Ludham

Tel: 01692 678674
elizabeth@brooks96.wanadoo.co.uk

Representing equestrian riding

Liz has lived in the Norfolk Broads all her life where she has owned and ridden horses from a young age. She believes that every equestrian should have access to safe, enjoyable, off-road routes. Her work with older people and interest in conservation, wildlife, walking and cycling gives her an insight into the needs of other user groups.

facility in the village of Ludham. His recreation activities include sailing, walking and membership of the Friends of How Hill Trust.

Alec Hartley – Norwich

Tel: 01603 452884
alecandkathie@gmail.com

Representing river access and heritage

Alec is a former Chairman of the Norwich Society, a Director of the Norwich Preservation Trust and Chairman of the Wensum River Parkway Partnership which aims to bring life back to the river in Norwich between Whitlingham and New Mills. He is a keen walker and campaigner for public access to both Norwich's unique heritage and the river which runs through the city.

Robin Buxton – Lingwood

Tel: 01493 750102
robin.buxton@ukgateway.net

Representing landowners and managers

Robin is a chartered surveyor involved with land and property management, particularly in the Broads. He is a member of the Broads Internal Drainage Board and Upper Thurne Working Group. He is also Chairman of the British Reed Growers' Association.

Tony Howes – Horsham St Faith

Tel: 01603 897326
tony@thowes.wanadoo.co.uk

Representing water-borne recreational users

Tony has lived and worked in the Broads area all his life. He retired in 2002 after 30 years with Blakes Holidays, latterly as Boating Operations Director, and is now Secretary of the Broads Hire Boat Federation. He is member of the Executive Committee of Broads Tourism and sits on the Broads Authority Boat Safety Management Group. Outside boating his interests include cycling, walking, bird-watching and the natural world.

Mike Flett – Ludham

Tel: 01692 678560
mikeandjeanne@btinternet.com

Representing landowners and managers

Mike, although born in Surrey, has been a resident in Norfolk since 1974, mostly in Ludham. He has been a Parish Councillor for more than 15 years, Chairman for more than 10 years and a past Chairman and Governor of Ludham First School. He is a founder Trustee of a registered local charity, Womack Charitable Trust, set up in 2001, whose main purpose is to administer and maintain a substantial mooring

Jo Parmenter – Reedham

Tel: 07710 252468
jo.parmenter@tlp.uk.com
reedham@btinternet.com

Representing nature conservation

Jo is a consultant ecologist and works for The Landscape Partnership, a firm of landscape architects and environmental planners, in Norwich. She has a particular interest in the creation, development and management of landscapes and ecosystems and combines her interest in natural history with a love of walking. Jo has lived and worked in the Broads area for over 40 years. She is a member of Reedham Parish Council and Norfolk Geodiversity Partnership, and also serves on the Norfolk Biodiversity Wetland Topic Troup.

Stephen Read – Oulton Broad

Tel: 07720 808715
stevereadcon@btinternet.com

Representing tourism and local business, and water-borne recreational issues

Steve is a chartered civil engineer with extensive experience providing infrastructure within the public sector and promoting new public rights of way. He takes a keen interest in sustainable issues but recognises the importance of commercial enterprise to support tourism within the Broads. He is a walk leader with the Waveney Group for 'Go Active Health Walks' and is also enthusiastic in promoting cycling facilities within the Broads Area. He has a strong affiliation with the Broads, is a Friend of the Hunters Fleet and became a member of the Broads Local Access Forum in 2010.

Hattie Llewelyn-Davies – Tring

Tel: 07710 480796
hattie.llewelyn-davies@virgin.net

Representing walking

Hattie has been coming to the Broads all her life. She has a keen interest in walking, wildlife, the environment and sailing. All of these interests are shared by her family. She knows the Broads very well and is very committed to ensuring the area is accessible for future generations. Hattie's background is in housing and health and she knows how important access to our countryside is to provide quality of life for people.

George Saunders – Norwich

Tel: 01603 413485
georgesauanders@btinternet.com

Representing people with disabilities and access for all

George came to Norfolk in 1989 after becoming disabled and joined the disability movement. He works for various charities which champion greater equality for disabled people including the Norwich Access Group and Norwich Shopmobility. Having been a keen walker he became interested in wheelchair access to the countryside and has worked in a number of ways to promote this over the years.

Gary Simons – Cantley

Tel: 01493 701983
gpsimons@onetel.com

Representing people with disabilities and access for all

Gary has canoed or sailed all the accessible navigable Broads waterways. He has a particular interest in the preservation of staithe and helped secure the registration of Cantley Parish Staithe as a village green. He now serves on the staithe management committee and sees this development as a good example of local initiative with Broads Authority support. The quality of the Broads landscape and access to it, especially for young people, are his priorities.

Charles Swan – Oulton

Tel: 01502 588915

Representing Parish Councils

Charles has been involved with the Broads Authority for many years, starting with the Consultative Committee under the Chairmanship of Mr James Hipwell. He is a parish councillor for Oulton (Suffolk) dealing with footpath and access matters. He is the Poors Trustee for Oulton Marshes, a keen angler and walker and also boat owner. As a supporter of the Suffolk Wildlife Trust, he works with primary school nature projects in the parish.

Ray Walpole – Norwich

Tel: 01603 300221
r.walpole05@tiscali.co.uk

Representing cycling and adult education interests

Ray was born in Reedham and has spent most of his life around the Broads before moving to the Greater Norwich fringe. He is a member of Norfolk Ramblers, Norwich Cycling and Norfolk Workers Education Association (WEA). He is particularly interested in promoting adult education in the Broads environment and heritage.

Christopher Yardley – Burnham Thorpe

Tel: 01328 738705
chris.yardley@cjyardley.co.uk

Representing nature conservation and cycling

Chris has been intimately involved with the Broads for many years. He was a former countryside officer with local government and continues to be involved with the ecology, history and wider land management of the area through his interests in wildlife conservation, cycling, walking and sailing. He is a member of a practical countryside management group which maintains footpaths and undertakes some conservation management works for landowners and local authorities. He has a special interest in access for all issues.
