

Change over time

Compare old and new pictures. What differences can you see?

The pub - front view

1.1

Nicky Rowbottom

Local Morris dancers - May 1st 2011

1.2

Beccles Museum

1920s - James Henry Money was the landlord of the pub and looked after the lock. His wife Anna bore 18 children.

The lock and the pub

2.1

Nicky Rowbottom

April 2011

2.2

James Stark, Norwich artist, 1830s

The pub from beyond the sluice

3.1

Nicky Rowbottom

April 2011

3.2

James Hartley

The Locks, Geldeston - d. 4523. (Sycamore)

c. 1925

3.3

Beccles Museum

Early 1900s

The pub and overflow channel

4.1

Nicky Rowbottom

April 2011

4.2

James Hartley

Probably about 1920

4.3

James Hartley

Late 1800s

The lock looking downstream

5.1

April 2011

5.2

After 1934 and before 1960s

The overspill channel, looking downstream

6.1

Nicky Rowbottom

April 2011 - a bridge

6.2

James Hartley

Early 1900s - a sluice

The lock from the Norfolk side - looking downstream

7.1

1920s

7.2

2011

Seasonal changes

The main river - upstream marshes on Suffolk side

8.1

Dec 2010

8.2

April 2011

Geldeston Lock Project 2011

Broads Authority
The Broads - a member of the National Park family

GW
The waterfowl watching charity

Seasonal change - the main river upstream

9.1

Nov 2010

9.2

April 2011

Seasonal change - the access track

10.1

Floods - winter - early 2000s

10.2

April 2011