Authority invites views on the future of the Broads

The Broads Authority is asking for people's views to help shape the future of Britain's magical waterland.

Members of the public are invited to share their thoughts on Broads planning issues, tourism and the overall five-year management of the area.

Public consultations are being launched over the next few weeks on three strategies.

And the first begins on Monday, seeking views on the Sustainable Tourism Strategy and the Destination Management Plan for the Broads. The consultation runs until March 4.

The biggest of the three strategies is the overarching Broads Plan.

It covers a wide range of themes from managing flood risk

■ The public will be consulted over the future of the Broads.

and water resources to conserving priority habitats and species, and from maintaining the navigation to connecting local communities.

Linking into the Broads Plan but with their own separate working documents are the Sustainable Tourism Strategy and the Broads Local Plan, which will contain policies on themes such as second homes, heritage and light pollution to help determine planning applications.

Consultations on the Broads Plan and the first stage of the Broads Local Plan will run from February 15 to April 8.

The five-year Broads Plan will then be implemented in 2017 and the Broads Local Plan will come into effect in 2018, and run until 2036.

Jacquie Burgess, chairman of the Broads Authority, said: "These strategies are for the Broads, not just the Broads Authority, and as such their success depends on a shared commitment to the Broads and to working in partnership with organisations, interest groups and local communities to make the best use of knowledge, effort and resources."

■ The three plans and details of how to respond to the consultations will be available from the consultation start dates at www.broads-authority.gov.uk/broadsconsultations.

■ The questionnaire can also be completed online at www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/HHFVCCS.

■ People will be able to attend drop-in sessions throughout the Broads and hard copies of documents will be available from libraries and council offices throughout the Broads. Details will be on www.broads-authority.gov.uk/broadsconsultations

- e) Posters: The Authority sent posters to the Parish Councils and asked them to place on their notice boards.

Your chance to have a say on Broads policy

A document which will help determine planning in the Broads is currently undergoing public consultation.

The Broads Authority is currently consulting on its draft local plan, which will be used to shape how the area grows. A public drop-in session, the last of three, will be held at Loddon and Chedgrave Jubilee Hall Sports and Social Club from 6pm to 8pm on Thursday, January 19. But the wider public consultation will continue until 4pm on Friday, February 3.

Leadership has turned troubled academy into a thriving one

lauren.cope@archant.co.uk

Strong leadership has transformed a previously troubled academy into a "thriving, successful community" over a two-year turnaround.

In an Ofsted report published yesterday, following a visit from inspectors in November, Stalham Academy was rated good across the board.

It gave particular praise to headteacher Glenn Russell who, it said, had "worked diligently" to raise standards since he took on the top job in April 2015.

"This has ensured that the school's reputation among parents and in the wider community has improved significantly over the last two and a half years," it said. "Parents confirm that, together, the head of school and his deputy have transformed the school into a happy, thriving, successful community in a relatively short period of time."

Inspectors said that the "overwhelming majority" of parents are positive about the school and recognise the "enormous" number of improvements over the last two years.

The school, formerly Stalham

Junior School, converted to an academy in spring 2014 and joined the Right for Success Academy Trust based at Eaton Hall Specialist Academy near Norwich.

Prior to that, in March 2013, it was put into special measures.

The benefits of becoming an academy have also been reflected in the school's results, inspectors say, which have "improved considerably" and saw progress in reading and writing at the end of Year 6 rank in the top 10pc of all primary schools nationally, according to the latest league tables.

Mr Russell said the school's improvement had now led to it having specialist leaders in education to provide support to other schools around the county.

He said: "The support from the trust, the way they challenge you and have high expectations in place has been a real push."

"But the staff have also been fantastic, and they are the reason that the school is now performing as well as it is. We have gone from one extreme to the other."

Broads Local Plan

The final consultation stage for the Broads Local Plan has started and anyone wishing to make comment has until January 5 before it is reviewed by the Planning Inspectorate.

The plan aims to protect the special qualities of the Broads, setting out policies to help determine planning applications and features policies which are distinctive to the Broads.

It has been through two stages of public consultation and covers topics such as heritage, ecology, housing quotas and mooring policies.

The final consultation period is eight weeks long.

A comment form and guidance paper can be found on the Broads Authority website.

Hard copies will be available in local drop-in centres, and sessions will be held on November 22 at Brundall Memorial Hall from 6pm to 8pm, at Geldeston Village Hall from 6pm to 8pm on December 6, and on December 9 at Potter Heigham Village Hall from 10am to 12pm.

e) Posters: The Authority sent posters to the Parish Councils and asked them to place on their notice boards.

4.4 Extension to consultation by one week

An extension of 1 week (until 12 January 2018) was given to everyone as some people requested this extension. This was advertised through social media and emails and letters to those on the database.

4.5 Those neighbouring residential moorings proposed allocations

In response to a suggestion by a stakeholder, the Authority wrote letters to those neighbouring the sites proposed for residential moorings. They were given six weeks to respond and the deadline for responding was 4pm on 16 February 2018.

4.6 Comments received

- The document including the main representations submitted in policy order can be found in the document library for the Examination in Public and is reference number LP-PUB4. This document sets out responses to each comment as well as the action as a result of the comment.
- A matrix showing the comments received from whom and to which policy along with the general nature of the comment is at Appendix D.
- Number of comments: 270

- Summary of outstanding comments at submission. Italics is the general reply to these comments.
- a) Vision – geodiversity needs to be mentioned in the vision. The vision is copied verbatim from the Broads Plan to ensure the documents are fundamentally linked.
- b) SP2 – the Authority needs to investigate in detail functional flood plains. The Local Plan is required to be based on a Strategic Flood Risk Assessment that has been completed.
- c) DM13 – disagrees with policy seeking to address energy use and renewable energy for housing and employment schemes. The policy meets legal requirements and has been proven to be effective in the past by virtue of delivery of the Ditchingham Maltings site and permission granted to the Pegasus site which both used the approach in the policy to address energy usage.
- d) SP12 – considers certain towns and villages should be mentioned in the policy. The policy is a strategic policy, applicable to all the Broads. Where would the list of places end?
- e) DM34 – queries the need for development boundaries. Development boundaries direct development to locations with good access to services and facilities and where landscape impacts are more likely to be minimal.
- f) DM36 – query development boundary and marina or boatyard locational requirements. See above re development boundary. Being located within a boatyard ensures no impact on navigation and that the more ‘intensive’ use of a residential mooring when compared to a short stay mooring could be contained better within a marina.
- g) DM42 – concern that requirement for building regulations M4(2) not fully justified. Noted and we intend to look into this post-submission.
- h) DM44 – considers that if all other policies in Local Plan are addressed then so are health considerations. That is not necessarily the case and the NPPF raises the importance of addressing health in planning.
- i) DM11 and DM47 – concern that holiday homes is allowed but market residential not allowed. The locations tend to be isolated from services and facilities that someone living in a house may need hence market residential is not the preferred use.
- j) GTY1 – should allow market and holiday residential and policy should apply to larger area. The area allocated applies to the brownfield land in need of regeneration. Discussions also ongoing through the application route with another party involved. Has been subject to much pre-application discussion.
- k) HOV5 – Hoveton Town Centre and areas adjacent to the Town Centre. The Parish Council feels that the “areas adjacent to the town centre” area in Wroxham considers Wroxham only in the context of the boundary of the Broads Authority and perpetrates the dominance of Hoveton town centre. Point v says it will consider proposals that contribute to the “vitality and viability of the Town Centre” – that Town centre being Hoveton not Wroxham. Wroxham becomes a conduit for traffic into Hoveton and a provider of car parking. The policy not only addresses the town centre but also areas on the periphery of the town centre that were subject to a policy in the Sites Specifics 2014 which are deemed necessary to be covered by a policy to guide proposals in that area.
- l) CHE1 and LOD1 – concern about upkeep of boats, management of moorings, anti-social behaviour and impact of traffic. It does not necessarily follow that people living on boats leads to anti-social behaviour. Formalising moorings for residential use could lead to improvements. Highways Authority have commented on proposals from a traffic perspective and consider mitigation is possible. Management of moorings is not a planning consideration.

- m) NOR1 – queries housing development here in relation to flood risk. Considers it ideal for a renewable energy power station. Not subject to flooding and the original plan for the wider site (including the part within Norwich City Council's area) did include a renewable energy station. Also policy does refer to a mix of uses.
- n) TSA2 – concern about the detail of the policy and considers island ideal for residential moorings. Site has not been put forward for consideration for residential moorings through the Local Plan formally. General disagreement on some of the points raised which have been raised before to the Authority.
- o) PUBSSA47 – concern that the policy may prevent the dualling of the Acle Straight. Discussions ongoing with those who commented.
